Lucas Bonacina Roldan

Professor, researcher of the Postgraduate Program in Administration and Advisor at Pontifical Catholic University of Rio Grande do Sul (PUCRS), Porto Alegre, Brazil

To Elena Chatziathanasiadou,

It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend Guilherme Zago for any position requiring exceptional research, development, and innovation skills. As Guilherme's professor and advisor at the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio Grande do Sul (PUCRS) for four semesters, I have had the opportunity to witness his impressive growth and dedication.

During his Final Year Project (TCC), Guilherme demonstrated a remarkable commitment and passion for research and development. His project, which involved the detailed creation of a proposal for a new company, reflects a meticulous and innovative approach. The document he produced, approximately 130 pages in length, is not only extensive but deeply rooted in thorough and comprehensive research, highlighting his ability to delve deeply into complex subjects.

The result of his TCC, with an almost perfect score of 9.8/10, was the second highest in the course that year, an achievement that speaks for itself. This accomplishment is a testament to his hard work, technical knowledge, and analytical skill.

In addition to his academic abilities, Guilherme is known for his exceptional creativity and focus on his interests and career. His ability to think outside the box and bring new ideas to existing challenges makes him an ideal candidate for roles that require innovative thinking and creative problem-solving.

Guilherme is a professional that any team would be fortunate to have. His enthusiasm, work ethic, and ability to adapt and continually grow ensure that he will be a valuable addition in any professional context. I am confident that he will continue to demonstrate the same level of excellence and innovation in his future endeavors.

Please feel free to contact me should you require any further information.

Sincerely,
